THE NEWS.—We have a variety of news today, including the arrival of another European steemer, and one from California with a million and a quarter in gold. We make up another batch of marine items.

The Kansas Free State men are about to meet in convention to take their affairs into consideration.

Marine News.

The propeller Chicago, from Buffalo, propellor Buckeye, from Chicago, bark Badger State, and schooner Milwaukee Belle, from Buffalo, the schooner Kitty Grant, from Muskegon, and schr. Stronach, from Manistee, have arrived since our last.

The propellar Chicago brings no marine news beyond what we have had. We learned from Mr. TALLMADGE ag't of the American Transportation Co. that the propellers Plymouth and Mayflower, bound up with large cargoes of merchandize, passed Detroit on Sunday, and the Tonawanda and Allegany had passed down. Dispatches from Detroit on Sunday, report the river open and vessels passing freely.

Bark Badger State, Capt. Cross, left Buffalo Nov. 14th, and has had a long and severe time of it. She was aground on Peach Island 48 hours, and lay some time at Bois Blanc, unable to move on account of the ice. Her rudder was frozen in solid, and she was weighed down 15 inches forward with the frozen spray, while her decks were covered with thick ice, the water freezing as it fell upon them. Capt. Cross reports three vessels lying under St. Helena, one of them the schooner Lone Star.

Schooner Milwaukee Belle left Buffalo three weeks ago Saturday, and has been to Saginaw for a cargo of lumber, which she brings safely into port.

The Belle left the Manitous in company with bark Danube, schooners Three Bells, Orkney Lass and Nelson, and the scow Pine Forest.—The Three Bells has arrived here.

Schooner Kitty Grant comes out of the brush with the elements with only the loss of her topmast. She worked out of the ice at Grand Haven on Friday, at noon, and run for Muskegon, to ⅌k on a load of lumber, and arrived here yesterday morning. Capt. Johnson reports that the schrs. Shoyer and Raleigh had left Grand River for Chicago. The schooner G. Barber of this port is badly ashore at or near White Lake, and the schooners Souvenir and North Cape, also belonging here, are ashore between Grand Haven and St. Joseph The former is represented as laying in an easy berth, and having saved her cargo of provisions, &c.

Our river was clear of ice yesterday above the mouth of the Menomonee, and the tug Decatur worked a channel through nearly to the mills.

Accident on Lake Pepin.

PEPIN, DUNN CO., WISCONSIN, }
November 23, 1857. }

MESSRS. EDITORS—A sadness and gloom has been cast upon our young village, in consequence of the loss of five of our citizens on the night of the 18th inst.

The owner of a small sail boat, whose name was McLane, was employed by our Postmaster to convey a mail for the east and south, across the lake to Reed's Landing, where it might connect with the Prairie du Chien stage, the mail boats from Dubuque having discontinued their trip to St. Paul. Four of our citizens named Bryant, Smith, Pierce, and ——, also engaged passage with McLane. This is the last seen of boat, mail, or men.

The night was a cold, windy and dreary one, the morning's dawn presenting the lake and river covered with a thick coat of ice. McLane intended to return before 10 o'clock, leaving here with his boat at eight in the evening.

Mr. Bryant was the landlord of the Dunnville Hotel, owned by Knapp Stout & Co., and he and all leave families.

The mail bag lost contained a large number of letters from this place and the interior towns, and some nine hundred dollars in money and drafts. Mr. Bryant also had a large amount of money with him.

Yours truly, D.

[QUERY—Is it not probable that the official returns from Dunn County were in the lost bags? —ED. SENTINEL.]

DUNN COUNTY.—We received last evening the North Pepin Independant, and opened it in haste, assured that we should get the official figures for Dunn County, but found that it was dated Nov. 7th. By the same mail we had St. Paul papers of the 24th.

DETROIT, Nov. 28.—Weather mild and thawing very fast. The ice at the mouth of the river is reported as going away. Indications now are that a large fleet of vessels which have been detained in the river, will be enabled to get into Lake Erie to-morrow or Monday. Several propellers arrived from Chicago to-day, and report many vessels ashoreon Lakes Huron & Michigan. The propeller St. Nicholas, from Racine, bound for Kingston, Canada West, loaded with 10,000 bus. went ashore on Sleeing Bear, on the 22d inst., and is probably a total loss. Crew saved, excepting the steward, who was frozen to death. $20,000 insurance. Schooner Kenosha ashore on Thunder Bay Island; total loss; crew saved. Schooner Lark, with cargo of coal, ashore at Carp River, Straits of Mackinac; total loss; crew saved. A propeller at Kettle Point, two vessels at Saugeen Island, one at Point Elgin and one at Port Douglass, with many others, reported ashore at different points. Their names not obtained.

LATER FROM EUROPE

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP FULTON

FINANCIAL ADVICES BETTER—HEAVY FAILURES. GREAT PANIC AND DECLINE IN BREADSTUFFS.

ST. JOHNS, Nov. 28.

The New York and Havre Steamer Fulton, passed Cape Race last evening at 5 o'clock.—She left Havre on the 15th inst., and Southampton at 3 o'clock P. M. of the 14th inst. She has seven passengers and $220,000 in specie, and a large and valuable cargo of French merchadise. She brings four days later dates than those of the Vanderbilt.

The Europa, from Boston, arrived out on the 16th.

The financial advices brought by the Fulton, although not so exciting as those of the Vanderbilt, are nevertheless, of absorbing interest.—The good effects of the suspension of the bank charter were still showing themselves everywhere.

Throughout Great Britain the money market was firmer than at last advices, and demand for discounts at the Bank of England were less pressing. Consols had also advanced, the closing quotations of the evening of the 17th, being 89¼@89⅝ for money, 90 for accounts. The Bank of France, as was anticipated at last advices, had announced its determination to immediately extend its issues.

The rate of interest at Hamburg had receded —the last quotation being 9 1 8.

Notwithstanding the improvment in the English money market, there had been several heavy failures in various branches of business in Great Britain. Several are also reported in France. The most prominent among those reported are Jelicoe & Wicks, merchants in the Turkey trade; Josephra & Co., in the Brazilian trade; Hardgett & Pickard, liabilities £120,000; Hoard, Bacon & Co., in the Swedish trade; and Edwards & Maltbier, East Indian and colonial brokers of London.

The Wolverhampton and Staffordshire banks had stopped payment, and great excitement existed in consequence. Their liabilities are estimated at nearly £500,000.

Several iron manufacturing firms had called their creditors together, for the purpose of trying to make some amicable arrangements in order to avoid, if possible, a full suspension.

The failures of most note in Paris are those of Borden, Dubuert & Co.; Hennote, Philippe & Co.

There is no later news from India, and no general news of importance from any other part of the world.

FOREIGN MARKETS—[PER FULTON.]

Liverpool, Nov. 17.

Wheat and flour meet with slow retail sales at a decline on the week of 4d @ 6d on wheat and 1s 6d@2s on flour.

In Indian corn there is but little inquiry, and quotations are nominal.

London, Nov. 17.

There was a heavy decline in grain in Mark Lane yesterday, causing a panic in the trade.—Wheat is 2@3s cheaper on the better qualities.

London, Tuesday evening, Nov. 17.

Consols closed firm to-day at an advance of 1-4@3-8 over Friday's prices. Closing quotations are 89⅛@⅜ for money and 90 for the 7th of December. Other descriptions of funds have also advanced decidedly.

Bank stock is quoted 211@214; reduced 88 3-4 @ 88 5-8; new three per cents 88 1 2@88 1 8.

The sales in foreign stocks have been limited, and there has been no material change in prices.

MARINE ITEMS.

From the Detroit Tribune, 28th.

The propellers Fitzsburg, Iowa, Tonawanda, Potomac, Kenosha, Wenona, and Quincy, all reached here early from above this morning. The Iowa left Chicago on Tuesday, the 17th; the Kenosha on Thursday; the Potomac, Wenona, and Tonawanda on Saturday, and the Pitzsburg last Monday. The Kenosha lay at Mackinac weather-bound four days, and all of them experienced a great deal of rough weather. The first ice encountered was in Saginaw Bay.

The Wenona, Kenosha and Quincy came through in advance of the others as far as the light house off Peach Island, accompanied also by the steamer Ploughboy, on her passage down from Saugeen. At this point we have indicated they were overtaken by the other four, preceded by the steamer Windsor, which had been employed by them to go in advance and break the ice. When the Windsor and her fleet came up, the others were within three hundred feet of clear water. The bow of the Kenosha, which led the van, was cut into some two inches by the ice. To protect her from farther damage, her bows were covered with vertical planks, well spiked. The method pursued was to cut the ice loose for some distance and then force their way through.

The Windsor Capt. Clinton, was employed by the four propellers at $60 each, to break the ice. She commenced at 8 o'clock last evening, and came through 26 miles of ice by 3:30 this morning. Mr. L. Kenworthy, government buoy tender on the Flats, piloted her through.

Captain Rowan, of the Ploughboy, found the schooner D. B. Sexton, of Cleveland, in a helpless condition, near Clark's Point, above Goderich, last Monday, and towed her into Goderich. Capt. R. performed another still more praiseworthy act, for which he deserves to be remembered. The news of the wreck of the Game Cock and the helpless condition of her crew, reached him on Friday, the 20th towards night. He immediately went to work to devise means to get off the crew. He carried his long boats nine miles on a sleigh to near the scene of the wreck, and got the men all off. One of them had his hands frozen. On the cargo of 11,000 bushels of wheat, probably one-third will be saved, and the vessel would no doubt be got off if assistance could reach her. She is on a gravelly bottom.

A propeller is ashore at Kettle Point; two vessels on Saugeen Island; one at Pt. Elgin, and one at Pt. Douglas. Sixteen in all are reported ashore in this portion of Lake Huron, but this is perhaps an exaggeration.

ST. CLAIR RIVER.—The schooner Rival, of Fultonville, near Oswego, is ashore at the head of Elk Island. The Windsor was signaled but could not go to her.

The propeller Allegheny got around yesterday afternoon at the Lower Elbow. Another propeller was seen at anchor in the neighborhood. Four vessels are aground in the South channel. The brig E. W. Gross, and the schooner Leader, are working their way down the river. The Corinthian, Bay State, and D. O. Dickinson, all bound down, are lying to, until the ice can be cut off them. The Mobile is represented in a sinking condition on account of injuries by the ice, but her situation is not very critical.

The Sasco is frozen in, and is short of provisions. The Phalarope is also somewhere in the river. The Yankee Blade has left for Chicago. The W. F. Allen, Long Star and Muskingum, were also bound up, but had not yet left the river.

PARTICULARS OF THE LOSS OF THE PROPELLER St. NICHOLAS.—The St. Nicholas left Racine Harbor, Nov. 20th, at 8 A. M., for Kingston, C. W., loaded with 10,050 bushels of wheat, wind N. W., and a heavy sea. On the 21st, at 2 A. M., called at Port Washington for wood. At 4 A. M., left. Wind south, thick with snow.—Encountered very tempestuous weather until the 22d, when she sprung a leak at 1 A. M. Water commenced gaining upon engine pump, and the hand pump was got under way by the deckhands—at 2 the water was over the ceiling—ashes of furnace mixed with water, and engine pump choked up and stopped; coalmenced bailing with buckets; water still gaining, being within a few inches of putting out the fires. At 5 o'clock it was thought prudent to put before the wind, in order to be near land. At 5:30 made land. She was not gaining on the water, and at 8 o'clock the fires were put out and the engine stopped. At this time the crew insisted on running the propeller ashore to save their lives. With broken chains, bottom boards of berths, &c., a little steam was again raised, in order, if possible, to save the boat, but the fires were again put out and the engine stopped working.

Steam was afterwards raised once more, and she steamed along the shore. The weather was so thick with snow, it was impossible to see only a very short distance ahead. Finding it impossible to get to the Manitous, the water gaining continually, she was run on under slow steam.—The crew had become almost completely exhausted by toil. Part of the crew rushed to the boat without Capt. Moy's consent, in order to gain the shore, and one man, the Steward, was lost. The wind and sea increased at noon (the 23d) and the propeller was driven broadside to the shore.

THE SCHOONER KERSHAW.—This vessel sailed from Falmouth the 16th of October, and her arrival at Quebec is daily looked for. Nothing, however, has been heard of her since starting, and it is possible she has been lost, or had to put back again. She is laden with a cargo for Montreal.—Oswego Press.

☞ The propellers Mary Stewart and Mount Vernon, for Detroit, and the Plymouth, for Chicago, left Buffalo on Monday night last, but on account of the storm which sprung up a few hours after, they were obliged to put back to port, where they arrived about daylight next morning.

☞ A despatch to O. H. Brown, this afternoon, says the schooner Wm. Sanderson, is asore ten miles above Buffalo, on the south shore. She was bound from Chicago to this port with wheat.—Oswego Times.

CITY MATTERS.

MACFARLAND'S BENEFIT.—We are informed that Wednesday (to morrow) night has been set apart for a Benefit to Mr. Macfarland, the gentlemanly and enterprising manager of the Metropolitan Theatre. Our people are much indebted to Macfarland for the trouble and expense to which he has been subject in his endeavors to establish a good Theatre in our city. He has, during his stay here, contributed no small amount to the amusement of the public, and we are sorry to say at a heavy loss to himself. No pains or expense has been spared by him in procuring many of the first artists in the country to appear at the Metropolitan. In this way he has expended a thousand dollars over and above his receipts, which of course is a great loss to him. Many of our citizens are not satisfied that he should be a loser, and have requested him to accept a benefit, which they do not doubt will be heartily responded to by every admirer of the dramatic art in the city. An interesting programme will be got up for the occasion, and while contributing to the assistance of a worthy man we will be fully repaid for what it costs us. We owe it to Macfarland, and let us give him a rousing benefit!

New York City at Albany Hall.

While the drama seems to fail in amusing our citizens, they appear to appreciate fully the fine works of art, that have been exhibited here.—Albany Hall has been nearly filled, upon several occasions since the exhibitions of Bullard's fine Panorama of New York City commenced, and the interest to see it has been in no way abated, by its continuance here. It will bear visiting half a dozen times, and one can learn something every time, that will more than repay him for his time, and the cost of admission, besides being quite interesting, particularly to those who have visited, or are familiar with the great city, for they will readily recognize familiar scenes and old acquaintances, so true a picture is it of the Empire City; and those who have never seen it, will learn much that they ought to know. It will be exhibited in this city but two days longer, this evening, and to-morrow afternoon and evening. Every one who has not seen this capital picture, should not lose this opportunity.

CHEAP LITERATURE.—The Cosmopolitan Art Journal for December is a gem of the first water This monthly has grown in value from month to month till it is now, to many, the most welcome of all the magazines. And it is cheap, too. By subscribing in the proper quarter for any of the $3,00 magazines, you get the Cosmopolitan in addition—a decided bargain in these hard times.

Besides this, the publishers of the Cosmopolitan are the owners of the former Dusseldorf Gallery in New York City, purchased at a cost of $180,000, and of Powers' Greek Slave, and their subscribers who visit New York are entitled to free admission to view those great works of Art.

It is a matter of such wide notoriety that the Association which issues the Cosmopolitan Art Journal, makes an annual distribution of works of art among its subscribers, that, as chroniclers of public events, we could not refrain from noticing the fact, were it not for the doubt in our minds, as to the interference of our Lottery laws with a free expression of opinion upon the point Without any regard, however, to the distribution of paintings, statuary, &c, (announced for the 25th of January) the subscriber who gets the Art Journal and one of the popular magazines for $3,00, does a good thing.

DISORDERLY.—John McCarthy, fined $3, Thos. W. Porter, fined $3, John Walch fined $5, Geo. Baker fined $25 and costs, George C. Hayes fined $10, and John T. Pierson fined $5 and costs.

LARCENY.—Frederick Rhodee was sentenced to 15 days imprisonment in the county jail for stealing a pair of stockings. H. M. Heddings was fined $5,00 and costs for stealing two pieces of plank. Four boys named Joseph Zoiosk, Antou Bario, Frank Cappeims and Jacob Coles were examined for stealing brass boxes from the M. & M. R. R., and committed to jail in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.—These boys were Bohemians, and all under 12 years of age. Two men named G. Rupert, and Ernest Bock, were also examined on the charge of receiving stolen property from the boys above mentioned, and recogized in the sum of $500 for their appearance at the December term of the Circuit Court. Josiah Silkey, also for larceny, committed in default of bail.

REMOVAL.—The city Grocery Store of Messrs. Masterson & Pierce, has been removed into the new brick store, one door from the corner of Main, on Mason street, and a few doors from their old stand. The new store is convenient, and pleasantly situated, and well stocked with every variety of family groceries. Messrs. Masterson & Pierce are enterprising young men, and we are pleased to notice this mark of their prosperity.

DRY GOODS SALE POSTPONED.—The great Sale of Dry Goods which was to come off this morning by Caleb Wall, is postponed, on account of the death of Deacon Whitney. The Sale will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. No business will be done at City Auction Room until Wednesday.

MORE JUVENILE THIEVES.—Yesterday evening policeman Just arrested two children, brother and sister, for stealing some jewelery from a store on Second street. The boy was only 9 years old and the girl but 12. They cried pitsously when locked up in the Station House. The necessity of a house of correction is becoming more a pparent every day.

ONLY TWO DAYS LONGER.—The Panorama of New York City attracted a large audience last evening. This evening, to morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and to-morrow evening close its exhibitions here. We are glad it has been so liberally patronized here; it shows that our People know how to appreciate works of real worth.—The buildings, shipping, signs, &c., are as plain to be seen and read, as if we were in the place, and simply observing from the opposite side of the street. It has often been remarked, and we think truly, that the advertisements of the painting are far below its actual merits. Few exhibitions are as worthy the patronage of intelligent people as this.

WEATHER.—The weather continued mild through yesterday, though the wind had worked around to the westward, bringing occasional light flurries of snow. There is very little hope entertained of a continuance of soft weather. It was freezing hard as we went to press.

PLEADING GUILTY.—The Madison Patriot and Horicon Argus, both democratic organs, have been discussing each other's political orthodoxy The Patriot having charged the Argus editor, with being a Know-Nothing, the latter admits that he once "did belong to the rat hole fraternity."

ATTORNEY AND COUNCELLOR AT LAW.—Mr. W. J. A. Fuller, formerly of this city, and for several years one of the proprietors of this paper, has opened a Law Office at 88 Broadway, N. Y., where he will always be glad to see any of his old Western friends and promptly attend to any business that may be entrusted to his care

☞ There are 75,000 letters on the signs in Broadway, New York City, and persons visiting Bullard's Panorama can read them as distinctly as they can read the signs over the stores in Milwaukee.

NEW YORK CHARTER ELECTION.—The Charter Election in New York takes place to-day. The contest for Mayor between FERNANDO WOOD, the regular nominee of the Sham Democracy, and DANIEL F. TIEMANN, the People's Candidate, will be the warmest that has been known in the City for many years. The friends of both seem equally sanguine of success.

STEALING A HOG.—A man who has heretofore been considered a respectable member of our community, was arrested on Saturday night by Policeman Poulter and O'Conner, for stealing a hog belonging to a man named Sullivan, near the depot of the M. & M. R. R. The name of the party arrested was Chas. Bierbach, a wagon maker. Sullivan refused to appear against him yesterday morning, in consequence of which he was discharged.

THEFT.—On Saturday night, some carnivorous scamps broke into the barn of James H. Rogers Esq., on Spring street Hill, and took therefrom five quarters of beef, and a fat hog. The property was taken away in a wagon. No trace of the thieves has yet been found. Thieving and ruffianism is becoming alarmingly common, the News Reporter to the contrary notwithstanding, and it behooves people to be on their guard, against incendiaries and burglars.

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 28th inst., at St. John's Cathedral, by the Rev. Mr. Donahue, Mr. CHARLES McLAUGHLIN, of Watertown, to Miss NORA LEDDEN, of this city.

DIED.

In this city, on Sunday, Nov. 29th, of paralysis, Deacon JONAS WHITNEY, aged 66 years.

He was born in Marlborough Vt., June 20th, 1791. In 1826 he removed to Syracuse, N. Y.; thence to Springfield Ill., in 1834; thence to Milwaukee in 1842. In each of these places he was well known as a man of sterling integrity and devoted piety. In Syracuse he was connected with the Presbyterian Church of which Dr. Adams was pastor. He was elected Deacon by the Second Presbyterian Church in Springfield, and held the same office in Plymouth Church in the city. He was one of those men whom neither church nor community can well afford to lose. If not a man of wealth he was a man of worth. His influence was wide and beneficent; less noisy perhaps than that of some who accomplish but little, yet powerful in its very quietness. For some years his health had been feeble. He has suffered from paralysis more than once. His death finally occurred in less than an hour from the commencement of the attack.

His funeral will be held from the Plymouth Church on Tuesday, (to-day,) at 11 o'clock A. M.

(Com.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.

The U. S. Mail steamship Northern Light, from Aspinwall on the 21st inst. with the California mails to Nov. 5th, bringing nearly one and a quarter millions of specie and freight arrived here yesterday P. M. The news from California is interesting. An immense meeting of the citizens of San Francisco was held on the first to give expression to the sense of the public on the loss of the Central America.

A project was on foot in California to create a new territory of the Great Basin, between the Goose Creek Mountains on the east of the Sierra Nevada, on the west and between the Oregon, and Utah line on the north, and Colorado river on the south.

A card has been published in the San Francisco papers, stating that the travel would be resumed on the Nicaragua route, and that on arrival of the mail of the 20th of October, the sailing day would be announced.

The advices from Central America are important. Under present circumstances war had been officially declared between Nicaragua and Costa Rica, and President Martinez, of the former republic, was preparing to place himself at the head of the army.

His proclamation announces a determination to maintain the right of the republic, to the territory claimed by, and now in possession of Costa Rica. Col. Bandi had possession of the river and lake steamers. No important operations have been undertaken by either party.

From Lockport, New York.

Lockport, New York, Nov. 30.

It has thawed here for the last two days and rained heavily all this morning. The ice in the canal though six inches thick, is breaking up.

T. Foster, come from Medina last night with an ice-breaker drawn by fourteen horses, and proceeded to Sulphur Springs, where he expects to meet a steam-tug from Buffalo. One hundred and forty to one hundred and fifty boats followed her.

Appearances now indicate that navigation on the canal will be resumed this evening.

ALBANY, Nov. 30.

Weather continues very mild, and favorable accounts from the West inspire us with a hope that all the produce now afloat in the canal will get through to tide water, and that navigation may be entirely resumed. A despatch to the Canal Auditor, received from Newark, Wayne County, this A. M., says:

The weather is mild and the ice broken, and boats are moving. A boat loaded with flour reached Albany to-day from Port Jackson on Friday. This is quick time. A fleet of twenty boats reached Waterford yesterday and were immediately locked into the river, and are now on their way to New York with about 75,000 bushels of corn and wheat. The Hudson is all clear of ice.

Steamer Burned.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.

The steamer New Lucy was burned on Wednesday last while ice bound at Dewitt, in Missouri River. No lives lost. Loss $18,000; insured $12,000.

Later from Kansas.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.

A delegate Convention of the free state party of Kansas has been called to meet at Lawrence on the second of December to take into consideration the present political position of the territory, and to designate some course to be pursued relative to the new Constitution.

Later from California—$2,000,000 in Specie.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28.

The Daniel Webster from Havana on the 25th, has arrived. She brings half a million in specie.

The news of the loss of the Central America had caused general gloom at San Francisco.

It was supposed that the accounts of Indian depredations in Carson Valley were exaggerated.

Further news from the plains confirms the belief in the complicity of the Mormons in the late massacre.

The papers say that an efficient army could be raised in California against the Mormons.

Hornathy, late refiner in the mint, had been indicted for embezzling $151,000.

The news of Slater & Church's drafts having been protested in New York, caused a run on them, and they were compelled to close.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Nov. 25.

THE TREASURY ESTIMATES FOR THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR.

The Treasury estimates of appropriation for the next fiscal year have been made up, and despite every effort to reduce them, the total amount estimated is about seventy millions.

The estimate for the War Department alone is twenty and a quarter millions—being largely increased by the anticipated Mormon War.

The total Naval estimates, including the special service and the construction of the new steam sloops of-war, amounts to fourteen millions.

Secretary COBB still thinks that the Treasury will not be compelled to resort to loans or Treasury notes.—New York Times.

Politics in Canada West.

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—The Governor General has to-day issued a proclamation desolving the present Parliament. Election writs are returnable on the 15th January next. The prospects are good for a lively time in politics during the winter.

Boerhave's Holland Bitters.

Few years have elapsed since the introduction of this valuable medicine into the United States. During this time it has gained a universal popularity as a remedy or Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache ons of Appetite, Debility, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles.

Many of our worthy citizens testify its wonderful efficacy in all affections of the Stomach and Liver, as a Tonic, it has never been equalled, for the relief it affords in all cases of Debility, or Weakness of any kind, is almost instantaneous.

CAUTION.—Be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters. The great popularity of this medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Among all preparations for the hair that have been introduced as infallible, none has ever given the satisfaction or gained the popularity that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative now has. His Restorative has passed through the ordeal of innumerable fashionable follies, and the ladies, wherever they have tested it, pronounce it a peerless article. They find, where the hair is thinned, that it creates a fresh growth —that it fully restores the vegetative power of the roots on the denuded places, and causes the locks to flow forth anew—that it cleanses and removes dandruff, prevents grayness, restores the hair to its original color when grayness has actually supervened, gives a rich lustre, imparts the softness and flexibility of silk to the hair, and keeps it always luxuriant, healthy and in full vigor.—*N. "Supplements" for the State Board.

The News seems to be greatly exercised by our suggestion to the Republicans in Oconto and other counties, who have been "disfranchised" by their local boards, to send up certified statements of the facts to the Board of Canvassers at Madison. The News is very anxious, apparently, that the Democratic "supplements" should be allowed and counted, but has no mind that the Republican ones should be treated in the same way. It professes, however, entire confidence in the Board of Canvassers, and avers that they will discharge their duties "without fear, favor or hope of reward." We hope so, certainly, but our faith is not so unquestioning as that of the News. We cannot forget that the State Board is made up exclusively of Democrats, one of them a candidate for re-election, and all three zealous partizans. We cannot forget that two years ago a Board, similarly constituted, violated their oaths, transcended their authority, and undertook to cheat the People out of their choice. We cannot forget that, now as then, the vote is close, and that Democratic emissaries have been sent to different and distant quarters of the State, expressly to get up "supplements." With these facts before us, and especially in view of the intimations thrown out by the News here and the Argus at Madison, as to what the State Board will do, we may be excused from putting that implicit trust and confidence in the State Board which the News is so prompt to avow. Let them be judged by their acts.

The News says:

> In electing State officers the legal voters are entitled to certain rights, which the State Canvassers will not deny them. The Supreme Court may, if it chooses, take the responsibility of disfranchising the legal voters of this State, and place its partizans in power, despite the will of the majority of the people as expressed at the ballot box.

The News is oblivious. It was the Democratic "State Canvassers" who, two years ago, disfranchised the legal voters of the State, and placed its partizans in power, and it was the Republican Supreme Court which redressed this wrong and vindicated the will of the majority as expressed at the ballot box. We trust that the present Board will not imitate the bad example of its predecessor, or undertake to set up its authority against the express provisions of the Statutes and the careful and elaborate exposition of the Law by the Supreme Court.

WILL THEY BACK DOWN?—A few of the leading democratic papers in the northern states, have used very strong language in denunciation of the outrage upon the people of Kansas by the late Pro-Slavery Convention, which outrages are justified by the President and the Cabinet.—Among the loudest of the remonstrate was Forney's Philadelphia Press, which said:

> The public man who falters in this issue seals his doom. The northern Democrat who tries to make the Convention of Kansas superior to the people, and who advises that the Constitution shall not go to them for endorsement or rejection, "FINISHES HIS CAREER FOREVER."

To the tune thus pitched, shrieked the following papers:—Detroit Free Press, Toledo Commercial, Milwaukee News, Dubuque Express, Davenport, (Iowa) Democrat, Buffalo, N. Y. Courier, New York Journal of Commerce, Providence, R. I., Post, Illinois, State Register, Galena Courier, Chicago Times, &c.

☞But Forney has already seen a new light. He has already backed down considerably. His paper says:

> We are assured on very distinguished authority that the clause in the Kansas Constitution making that instrument irreversible for seven years, cannot stand the test of a new Convention, which may be called immediately after the organization of the new State, and we are further assured that there is to be a perfectly fair election in December, and that if the vote shall be against slavery, slavery will not exist hereafter. We shall be very much gratified if these results follow according to the predictions of the advocates of the minority Calhoun Constitution. Our only object is to secure a practical expression of, and obedience to, the popular will, as was promised over and over again, under the auspices of the Democratic party, since enactment of the Kansas and Nebraska bill in 1854.

That is drawing it very mild. It will not, probably, take more than a week longer to bring all the remonstrants into the traces. The party must be a unit, no matter what injustice or outrage is committed.

GOVERNMENT FINANCES.—The Washington correspondent of the N.Y. Courier and Enquirer thinks it highly probable that a loan will be called for, to be authorized by Congress, of from 12 to 20 millions of dollars. The floating debt of the government is represented as very large; Oregon and Washington Territories coming in with claims of over $7,000,000 on account of Indian hostilities.

The brilliant ad valoreum policy of the tariff cuts down the revenues when they are most, and increases them when they are least needed. The Mormon and Indian war, with an incalculable expense, is upon us. In fact the expenses of the Government generally are increasing in a rapid ratio, and the subject of an excise or direct tax is beginning to be discussed at Washington.

THE EGG BUSINESS IN MAINE.—The quantity of eggs exported from the State of Maine is enormous. The Augusta Banner says that one man, a merchant of Farmingdale, during the last year, collected and sold no less than 200,000 dozens—2,400,000 eggs. The average price was 18 cents a dozen—making a total of $36,000. There are 40 dozen in a bushel—480—and thus he collected 5,000 bushels. In May last he collected 68,000 dozen.

A POET IN LUCK.—M. Lamartine, whose fortune was greatly impaired by a series of bad years, and his indulgence to poor tenants, has this year had a magnificent crop of wine upon his Macon estate in France. It is said that he has sold 8000 casks, at 80 francs each, and has consequently realized the sum of 240,000 francs.

STEAMBOAT ARRIVALS AT ST. PAUL.—We learn from a table in the St. Paul Pioneer [illegible] number of arrivals of steamboats at that port for the year 1857 [illegible] that the number was 1026, being an increase of [illegible] over 200 over last year. The first boat arrived there the 1st day of May, and the last on the 14th of November. Last year the last arrival there was on the 10th of November.

☞The Legislature of Alabama met in Convention, and on the first ballot elected the Hon. C. C. CLAY, Jr., to the Senate of the United States for six years from the 4th of March, 1858, when his present term of office expires.

☞A report of Prince Napoleon on the great Paris industrial exhibition in 1855 shows that the total number of visitors was five million one hundred and sixty two thousand; the receipts were 2,675,000f. and the expenses were three times as much. The entire loss, therefore, was over a million dollars.

APPRECIATIVE.—The Transatlantic Telegraph Company have placed the entire supervision of the enterprise in the hands of CYRUS W. FIELD, and have appointed as its engineer the engineer of the Niagara. John Bull seems to be of the opinion that American enterprise and ingenuity are of some value in such undertakings.

☞The Madrid Gazette contains a notice from the Board of Trade that no foreigner will be permitted to enter Spain unless provided with a pass port, duly signed by the Spanish consul or consular-agent to the country from which such foreigner may come.

Modern Sham-Democracy.

The following scorching paragraphs from the N.Y. Courier & Enquirer relative to Mayor Wood and his supporters, is commended to the attention of sundry strict partizans hereabouts, very good men in their way, who always vote the nominations, whatever they may be;

> "Were Fernando Wood a devil incarnate, the fact of his selection as the standard-bearer of his party is enough to rally to his support the ranks of the Democracy." So declared John Cochrane at Tammany Hall last evening. "I know my party well. Were I to cut the throat of one of my family to-night, I should none the less be elected Mayor of New York next Tuesday by five thousand majority." Such was the declaration of Fernando Wood to ourselves, in the presence of two or three witnesses, on the Thursday evening preceding the Mayoralty election of 1854—his object being to convince us of the uselessness of publishing the documentary evidence concerning his great Manvius Swindle. There is then a perfect accord between John Cochrane and Fernando Wood in their estimate of the utter slavishness of the mass of their party—its readiness to exalt even the blackest crime, to uphold even murder, to stand by even incarnate devilry itself, if invoked to do so in the name of the party. Can a greater insult to any body of men be imagined? Is it possible for a more blasting libel to be put upon any political party? Were it true, had the Democratic party come to that pitch of recklessness, it would be no longer fit to have a place on the earth. The nether regions alone would be its proper field for action. But it is not true. There are thousands in the Democratic party in this city, who will scout, with supremest scorn, such exactions upon their manhood. They will not throw away their reasons and consciences, and debase themselves into "dumb, driven cattle," to please John COCHRANE or any other party manager. Not a few of the Democrats of this stamp will be at the Academy of Music this evening, and they will discourse music which will convince these Tammany Hall gentry that they have reckoned without their host.
> We know the degrading views of human nature entertained by demagogues of that school of which JOHN COCHRANE is a type. But, object as they doubtless, one would suppose that they would hardly venture upon such a demand for it to abase itself as is involved in the language they now use. They are evidently satisfied that nothing short of an extreme self-degradation of the individual members of the party can save the party nominee, and are bent upon straining the capacity of degradation to the utmost.

Fox and Wisconsin Improvement Company.

Some weeks since an extract from the Washington Union appeared in this, as well as in many other papers, which stated in substance that the even sections selected by the Fox and Wisconsin Improvement Co., had by a compromise or mutual agreement been surrendered to the General Government and that in lieu thereof the Company were to take a like number of acres in the Hudson District. This announcement was premature and the statement entirely erroneous.

We learn from Judge WHEELER, the Land Agent and Commissioner of the Company and Trustee, who has been East on his business, that such a proposition was made at Washington, but was declined by the Company, because it did not protect the settlers in their title to even sections with sufficient certainty and safety, although by the proposition the Govt. Land Department promised and in good faith, intended to protect them.

Everything on the subject is not restored to its former condition. We understand that it is a mere technicality which has heretofore delayed the confirmation of the title of the even sections in the Company in due form, so that deeds can be given, and that beyond all question the title will very soon—probably this winter—be confirmed to them in technical and due form at Washington, and in the mean time, as Govt. has no claim to these lands as against the settlers who purchased them of the Company, and no other parties having any right to them, the title would seem to be reasonably safe now, for all ordinary practical purposes.

This matter, however, has nothing whatever to do with the other lands, which the Company are now selling by their Agent in this city. The title to these has fully and in all due form been confirmed in the Company, and we are gratified to learn that they are selling them to actual settlers at a low price. As the Company are now using a large amount of money upon their Improvement we have no doubt they will sell cheaper this winter than next season.—Fond du Lac Union.

The Alleged Destitution in Oconto County.

Dr. HALL, the assembly man elect from the north-eastern counties, denies, in the Green Bay Advocate, the stories of suffering in that region. He concludes his letter as follows:

> I suppose I have as extensive an acquaintance in Oconto County as any other man in the County, having lived here over fourteen years, and having spent the majority of my time for twenty-seven years in the practice of medicine, and my profession has called me to see a vast deal of poverty and suffering. I have seen much of it east, even in good farming districts, but more particularly about large cities and villages, where the relief means for obtaining a subsistence were much more scarce than here, and rents, fire-wood &c., fright. I am in the practice of medicine now, which makes me intimately acquainted with all the families on the Menominee and Peshtigo, and many upon the other Rivers on the West shore of the Bay, and I do not know of a single case of destitution; and further, during my 14 years residence here, I have never seen a case of absolute destitution—and for the very reason that the means of subsistence are so varied and abundant, and so easily obtained. If a man is ever so poor, he can easily obtain the means to build his own shanty—get his wood, &c., and the lands here certainly produce well; and over and above all that, the abundance of the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and more particularly the finny tribes of Green Bay will keep any man from starving that will work.

HARD TIMES!—As an evidence of the pressure of the times, the usually gallant young men of this city seem to be unable to attend concerts if they are obliged to buy "tickets for two." A fine illustration of how the thing works came to our notice the other day.

Miss——met Charley a few evenings before the Concert of ——, at Temperance Hall.—Charly regretted he should not be in town on that evening, or he would invite Miss——to attend. The evening came, Miss——and her friend Miss——in view of the scarcity of beaux took it into their heads to go alone. They were, of course, greatly astonished to see Charley in the room. He did not see them, but he heard from them next morning, when he received, enclosed in an envelope, a Complimentary Family Ticket to the Concert, backed as follows:

> Aurora, October 7th, 1857.
> COMPLIMENT OF
> N. B.—Hard times, eh! Charley?

THE HOME OF A "PRINCE."—We were never more struck with the beauty of the "Williams Tract" than one day last week, when we happened up there, looking for a lost horse. The house sits upon the bank of the river, which is the [illegible] quite high, and commands a fine [illegible] and down the stream. In [illegible] and a high bank [illegible] termin[illegible] prospect up [illegible]ront is a row of trees, [illegible]slopes gently down to the water, [illegible]ing in a grassy meadow, a favorite resort for horses and cattle. It is perhaps not as commanding a situation, yet it much resembles Mount Vernon—the house of a chief in fact. In the rear is a neglected field, and westward stretches a large marshy prairie.

Before visions of thrones and regal splendor beset him, here lived in this sylvan spot, ELEAZAR WILLIAMS, the Indian missionary. What a wealth of quiet happiness was forsaken for the poor tinsel and glitter of a day's notoriety. And how gladly would he now forget that dream of power to be given back, for the rest of his days, that pretty western home, firmer on its foundations than a French throne, and that dusky people who with all their faults, are more faithful than a French nation.—Green Bay Advocate.

Positively the last Appearance.

The News gives the public another view of that dung-hill fowl, the premature appearance of which caused so many confiding, Cross men to "bet and lose largely"—not at faro, but upon their favorite candidate.

This, we understand, is positively the last appearance of the bird

> 'Fare the well, and if forever,
> Still forever fare the well."

OUR MAIL.—We understand that in place of coming direct through via the Milwaukee and Horicon Railroad, and Berlin, it is posted round on the Lacrosse Road via Portage City, and Kilbourn City, taking two or three days, instead of 1 to reach Stevens Point. We would respectfully suggest to the Postmaster at Milwaukee, that this is a grievous injury to three or four thousand people here, whose rights are as dear to them as those of any other part of the State. We hope the mails may be permitted to come the usual, direct route via Berlin.—Stevens Pt. Pinery.

THE BURNING OF THE REINDEER.

PARTICULARS AND INCIDENTS.

From the Louisville Courier, Nov. 28.

The two chambermaids jumped overboard from the after guard, and were saved by the officers of the Sovereign. One of them alighted on a floating log, and was caught nearly a mile from the wreck. Several of the lady passengers and their husbands, which were in the after part of the boat, leaped boldly overboard, trusting to the mercy of the waves. Many of these were saved by the yawl of the Sovereign, that came down and landed just below. Six persons were thus saved, half a mile down the river, floating on a piece of timber.

Two of the party were women, who were taken out perfectly lifeless. Mrs. Whittaker of Vicksburg, who had thrown herself overboard with her three children, was also saved, but the children perished. She was floating on a piece of scantling, but, when taken on board the Sovereign, was completely deranged and so remained up to the departure of the boat which took her back to Vicksburgh. A ladder thrown from the upper deck of the Rainbow was the means of saving several lives. One lady was rescued from the water wholly unconscious, with a life-preserver tightly grasped in her arms.

The chief mate of the Rainbow, Clise, Whitlow, was indefatigable in his exertions to save life; and was successful in rescuing a number of women and others, for which he deserves the highest meed of praise. The second mate, Mr. McKee, saved John Smorzka, the second clerk, who was confined to his room in the Texas with rheumatism, and couldn't walk. He resigned himself to fate, but the mate seized him and carried him down to the deck in his arms. The two stewards, colored men; the two pastry cooks, Germans; the third cook, colored, and the coffee grinder, a boy, were all burnt up in their rooms in the after part of the Texas. One of the cooks broke through the flames, but fell to the lower deck amid the burning ruins, and his remains were seen by the persons on shore, at the foot of the cylinder timbers, burning up.—His name was Wallace, belonging to Mr. Shane. Geo. W. Blake, assistant engineer, who was in his room with others, jumped overboard and swam ashore.

Augustus Merritt, the chief engineer, stood at his engines until he was surrounded by fire and the lamps bursted with the heat. He then seized his overcoat, and, throwing it over his head, went to the mud valve, raised it, and let off the steam and water, and by so doing prevented an explosion and saved the lives of many.

Of the cabin crew and waiters only two were saved—Tom and Tobe, colored boys, the property of Sam Young. Tobe was the last person saved from the burning boat. He had managed to climb into the wheel-house, and was clinging to a paddle when hauled out. He had been with Capt. Hollcroft for seven or eight years. Two stewards and four cooks were lost, and of the crew of twenty-seven deck hands and firemen, only twelve were saved. The clerk had collected some $400 from deck passengers, at prices ranging from $2,50 to $4,00 each, which would make the deck list number over one hundred, and it is estimated that half of them were lost.

One of the most terrible scenes ever witnessed was the crowd of human beings that gathered around the after guard of the burning boat, and in the wheel-house. They were so completely terror-stricken as to be utterly powerless, surrounded by the flames that still clung to the burning wreck, and not one would jump into the river, or attempt to reach the shore, which was not over forty feet from them. Mr. Huston, the clerk, and others waded into the water and pushed out a log to their reach, but not one would. would get upon it, but suffered it to drift past them, thus cutting off all hope. An old man from Napoleon with a white horse, was with this crowd of panic-stricken beings, and in a few moments that guard with its weight broke through, and the whole mass, together with the white horse, fell into the river with a crash, the piercing shrieks of the victims resounding with fearful effect upon the people on the shore who had escaped, but were utterly unable to save them. The horse was distinctly seen in his struggles to drag down several of the people who were attempting to extricate themselves from the burning wreck around them. Several of the passengers were seen in an upright position clinging to the hog chains, and thus burnt alive.

Mr. Wheatly, from California, with his wife and child, jumped from the steamer and struck boldly out for the shore. The wife soon sank to rise no more; the child was drowned clinging to the father's neck. He could not reach the shore with his child and was compelled to let it go.—Mr. W. was assisted by those on shore, and saved. He had $8,500 in gold in the safe which was recovered. He remained at the wreck to recover, if possible, the remains of his wife and child.

Mr. Whitlow, the mate, picked up five persons hanging to a small piece of timber. All were saved, though in two of them life was apparently extinct.

Mr. Maddock, a traveling agent of a Philadelphia house, lost $20,000 worth of jewelry, saving nothing but his pantaloons, without either coat or hat.

Those of the passengers and crew who were on the forward part of the boat escaped without difficulty. These at the stern were cut off from any means of escape, except by jumping into the water.

Although it was but a few yards to the shore, but a few of the latter escaped, except those who had the presence of mind to take life preservers or something to sustain them in the water.

No doubt many were burnt in their rooms.—Some were overcome with fright and knew not where to go, and would not jump into the water.

The wheel house next the shore was filled with men, women and children. The beams burned off and the weight of the wheel careened it overboard, carrying with it a great many persons, but few of whom were saved.

All the books and papers being destroyed, it is utterly impossible to ascertain accurately the names of the lost or saved—but after carefully comparing the statements of those that were saved, we cannot make the loss less than sixty to seventy-five human beings—all ushered into eternity without a moment's warning. Truly, "in the midst of life we are in death." The officers without exception were saved.

DEATH OF JAMES G. BIRNEY.—James G. Birney, who died at Eaglewood, Perth Amboy, yesterday morning, at the age of sixty-five years, has been suffering during the past twelve years from paralysis, which has recently been complicated with heart disease, and aggravated by the infirmities of old age.

Mr. Birney was born at Danville, Ky., in 1793. He graduated at Nassau Hall, New-Jersey, and studied law with Mr. Dallas in Philadelphia. At the age of 25 he became a planter in Alabama and the owner of thirty five slaves, but soon afterward entered upon the practice of his profession again at Huntsville, Ky. Early in life Mr. Birney became interested in the Anti-Slavery movement, and not only freed his own slaves, but induced his father to make such a disposition of his estate as to leave him his twenty one slaves, when he set them free at once. In 1834 he attempted to start an Anti-Slavery newspaper in Kentucky, but finding it impossible to procure printers there, commenced his publication in Ohio, where it excited the most violent hostility. In 1845, when living in Michigan, he became the "Liberty Party" candidate for the Presidency, and has been thought by the friends of Mr. Clay, to have largely contributed to his defeat. Since [illegible] time the public have rarely [illegible] has continued to [illegible] dent friend[illegible] [illegible] the Centre of a circle of ar[illegible]. That his youngest son might enjoy the advantages of Mr. Theodore Weld's school and that he might be nearer the friends of the reforms which he had much at heart, he removed to New-Jersey. Mr. Birney has been twice married. His second wife, who was a sister-in-law of the Hon. Gerrit Smith, survives him. As a reformer, James G. Birney had none of that rancor and bitterness which sometimes disfigure the advocacy of a noble cause. His character was singularly pure, and his reputation is without a blemish. Mr. Birney's funeral will take place at Eaglewood to-morrow at 11 o'clock.—N. Y. Tribune.

FIRE.—We are informed that the Brewery establishment, owned by FRANK LINCENEHEDT, and situated on the "Middle Road," about a mile and a half from the city, caught fire on Thursday morning, about six o'clock, and was totally consumed. The loss is about $4,000; no insurance. —Racine Journal.

ANOTHER FIRE.—Another fire broke out, on Thursday, about noon, in a building owned and occupied by Mr. SCHULTZ, which was totally destroyed. It was used for a bakery, and the fire caught from the oven. The loss amounts to about fifteen hundred dollars.—Ib.

Indians.

A camp or two of Pottawatomie Indians have again made their annual visit to this neighborhood, to hunt deer. A large six feet six, and his sons, came into our office on Saturday and informed us that there are "no much deer" hereabouts, and "hunt no good," confirming the report of all hunters with whom we have conversed, on the subject. They will soon have to leave this region or starve, as they will not work.—Richland Obs.

NATURALIZATION.—Naturalization for the election continues to go on with ardor—much more intently, seemingly, in the coniuglesity, than in the late State election. Our reporter met one fellow, who said, he had been naturalized once, but he was going to be naturalized over again, as he got 50 cents by it!—N. Y. Express.

Massachusetts.

"The people of the Old Bay State have political tastes which we fear are incurably depraved.'—Journal of Commerce.

Let us see who, and what, these "incurably depraved" people are. They number in all somewhat over a million, occupying an area of 7,800 miles, including rocks and swamps. This area square is traversed by 1285 miles of Rail Roads. This "depraved" people produces Agricultural and Manufactured articles worth at least $300,000 000, viz: Boots and Shoes $37,500,000, Cotton Goods $36,000,000, Woollen Goods $14,000,000, Iron $10,000,000, Steam Engines and Machinery $7,000,000, Hats and Caps $7,000,000, Paper $4,000,000, Musical instruments $2,500,000, and other articles not less useful than ingenious.—The value of the Churches owned by this people is $10,500,000; the number of Free Schools 3,679; Public Libraries 1,462; and only 1,055 of the inhabitants of native birth are unable to read and write. They publish and read 244 different newspapers, and pay postage to the amount of $532,000.

These are a few of the characteristic items that make up the Statistics of the "Old Bay State." Her citizens are evidently neither idlers, nor ignoramuses. It is true that less than one quarter of her voters belong to the so-called Democratic party, and that there is no prospect of any increase in that number, but we submit that in face of all the proof to the contrary, this is insufficient to prove the people "incurably depraved" in their political tastes.—Albany Evening Journal.

THE MONSTER GUN.—The monster gun of the United States corvette Plymouth, weighs 16,000 pounds avoirdupois. It is covered with a casting of vermillion and beeswax, and therefore has a red instead of the usual black appearance of a ship's guns. The heavy Dahlgreen guns have two vents, which facilitate their rapid and safe firing. The weight of each shell they discharge is about 188 pounds, and that of each solid shot 174 pounds. The sound of the shell and shot traversing a distance of three miles is lost in the enormous space which it traverses. One peculiarity of the Dahlgreen gun is its enormous strength and thickness where the greatest force of the powder is expended. In experiments made to test the strength of these guns, one of them had been fired off nearly 2,000 times, with a large proportion of solid shot, without bursting.

"Nothing More Vulgar."

A Boston paper says that the words "Narry red to nary broke," have been written over the doors of the Kentucky banks. This is absolutely untrue. Such an inscription, we understand, was recently put up by the citizens of Springfield, O., over their banks, but no such vulgarity has ever been displayed at the door of any bank in Kentucky. Nothing more vulgar than rotten eggs has been resorted to for the protection of any of our institutions. Do us justice, Messrs. Yankees. —Louisville Jour.

A BEAUTIFUL REPLY.—A lady had written on a card, and placed on the top of an hour-glass in her garden house, the following simple verse. It was when the flowers were in their highest glory:

"To this I summers yet to come
Took I am not to roam
To think a weed is yet to bloom
From dust that I shall be!

The next morning she found the following in pencil on the back of the same card:

"To this I when earth and heaven are fled,
And times and seasons o'er,
When all that can die shall be dead,
That I must die no more!
Oh! who are will then my portion be,
Where shall I spend eternity?"

NEWSPAPER COMFORTERS.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, sends the following communication to that paper, disclosing a plan for sleeping comfortably these cold nights, which, if successful, will be hailed with joy by many a poor family. It will cost very little to try it.—He says:

I allude to making comforters out of newspapers. Soon after the advent of chilly nights, finding the extra covers too heavy, and remembering the suggestion of a year ago, I took off a weighty coverlid and substituted a half dozen copies of a popular weekly. I never slept more pleasantly. I mentioned it some of my acquaintances, who, on trial of the past two weeks, pronounce it effectual. I use it on three beds in my house, and, as nothing can be cheaper, I feel authorized to recommend it for general use. I had the curiosity to weigh the newspapers in use on my three beds, and the amount of all is three pounds only. The papers can be spread loosely, overlapping one another, although for convenience I have pasted the edges together. How trifling is the cost and how easily obtained! A pound or two of old newspapers can be procured for four cents a pound, and it spread between two light covers to retain them in their place, will keep a person comfortable, whether he be poor or rich. The experiment can easily be tried.

SANTA CLAUS NOT FAILED.—The friends of old SANTA CLAUS, in the good Dutch city of Albany, have heard from him. The Journal says:

THE RUMORED FAILURE OF SANTA CLAUS.—The North wind, which came down last night from Lapland, blew positively that the rumored suspension of the Christmas Saint was wholly untrue. Our informant says he followed the universally loved old fellow into his reindeer stable, and himself lifted the hair on the backs of Prancer, Dancer, and all, as they breakfasted on moss and milk, and he knows of a certainty that they are in the highest traveling condition. He also took the liberty of feeling of the Saint's checks on his way back to his house, and of pulling at his short hair. Neither the one or the other was the least bit "suspended." But the whole sky back of the Santa Claus mansion was suspended thick with every conceivable thing to gladden the hearts of children. Mr. Wind, however, seemed to feel that the Sledge was not quite as large as that in use of late years. He ventured to seek by direct question a confirmation of his belief that the saint was in funds and eminently solvent. Patting with a gesture full of comfort and good conscience, that

"little round belly,
That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly."

he replied: "My deposits are kept in the Bank of the Human Affections. No check ever drawn upon it was protested for non-payment. Blow to Young America to keep its "eye skinned" for the 25th of December."
